2012 Submission Guidelines

The Anisfield-Wolf Book Awards, which recognize outstanding works that contribute to our understanding of racism and the rich diversity of human cultures, is accepting entries through December 31, 2011. Awards are given for both fiction and non-fiction, with winners being announced in the spring. The awards are administered by the Cleveland Foundation.

Award recipients traditionally receive a monetary gift of $10,000 from the Anisfield-Wolf Fund. Now in its 76th year, the Anisfield-Wolf Book Awards continues to be the only American book award designed specifically to recognize works addressing issues of racism and diversity.

Eligibility

To be eligible, books must be written in English and published in 2011. Plays and screenplays are not eligible, nor are works in progress. Manuscripts and self-published works are not eligible. Poetry books are eligible in the fiction category.

Submitting a Book

To submit a book for consideration, send five copies with the completed entry form to:
